BROWN FIRM FAILED AFTER HARRIMAN HAD SET BEAR TRAP

He and William G. Rockefeller Thought Brokers Were Acting for Some Big Trader.

TRIED FOR A "SQUEEZE."

When They Found They Hadn't Caught Lawson or Reid They Let Firm Fail.

After it had been announced to-day that Albert O. Brown and Lewis G. Young, of the defunct firm of A. O. Brown & Co., had been expelled from the New York Stock Exchange, an amazing story of the collapse was told by a member of the stock exchange, a reporter of The Evening World.

According to this story E. H. Harriman and William G. Rockefeller set a trap for a big bear trader. They believed that A. O. Brown & Co. were acting for Thomas W. Lawson, Daniel G. Reid or the Van Nordsen. After the trap was set they learned that none of the big bears were represented by A. O. Brown & Co. There was no one to "squeeze," so they let the firm go to the wall in the natural course of events.

A. O. Brown & Co., said the member of the stock exchange who had been on the bear side of the market for some time—possibly waiting for such a drop as occurred this week—was believed to be the leading bull, Harriman and William G. Rockefeller, to have been a cover for some big independent bear operator. Thomas W. Lawson was at first suspected of being behind the large selling orders put out by the New York Stock Exchange house, and then suspicion shifted to Daniel G. Reid and the Van Nordsen.

Called for the Stock.

"The big bull interests, who had been carrying large amounts of stock in the hands of their brokers, conceivably called upon their brokers for the physical possession of the stock on the pretext that they had determined to place them directly in their bank loans. An examination of the returns made to the New York Clearing House by certain banks controlled by the Harriman and Rockefeller interests for that week shows this increase of bank loans on stock."

"The brokers representing the bull leaders, as the custom is, had been lending these stocks to borrowers—chiefly A. O. Brown & Co.—and when obediently they called upon A. O. Brown & Co. to return them the trap was sprung. A. O. Brown & Co. had not the stocks in their possession, having delivered them on previous short sales, also as the custom is, and they had either to borrow elsewhere or buy them in the open market."

"They made extraordinary efforts to borrow elsewhere and failed, whereupon the only alternative was to buy in the open market the shares which they were called upon to return to the bull party's brokers. This was the situation on the Friday night preceding the famous Saturday exploit."

Short Thousands of Shares.

"On Friday night A. O. Brown & Co. was short 385,000 shares, which had ac-

VANDERBILT DECREE OF DIVORCE IS FINAL

The final decree of absolute divorce was signed this afternoon by Justice Gerard, in the suit of Elsie French Vanderbilt, freeing her from Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

Even the final decree makes no provision for alimony, but follows the lines of the interlocutory decree signed May 28.

The Vanderbilts were married Jan. 11, 1901, and have but one child, William H. Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Vanderbilt receives the custody of the child, with leave to his father to apply to the Court for permission to see the child at stated periods.

FIFTH AVE. BUS RAMS LIGHT POLE, CRUSHING WOMAN

Motor Stage Skids Into Curb, Pinning Victim Against Smashed Upright.

WAS BEYOND CONTROL.

Miss Philpott, About to Cross Street, May Lose Leg, Despite Prompt Aid.

A Fifth avenue motor bus, beyond control of the chauffeur, skidded into an iron electric light pole at the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street to-day, and Miss Alice Philpott, of No. 2056 Prospect avenue, Bronx, who was unfortunately in the way, was badly injured.

The steps on the rear of the bus broke the pole into three pieces. Miss Philpott's left leg caught between the edge of one of the steps and the tooth-like top of the stump of the pole and was so crushed and lacerated that the surgeons at Flower Hospital fear they will have to resort to amputation to save her life.

The accident was due to the unwieldy properties of the Fifth avenue bus and the slippery condition of the pavement. During the long dry spell the asphalt has become coated with a thick top dressing of automobile oil. The chauffeur, who was driving the bus, was not seen to notice the danger.

Miss Philpott, who was standing on the sidewalk, was struck by the rear of the bus and thrown into the air. She landed on the ground, her left leg caught between the edge of one of the steps and the tooth-like top of the stump of the pole and was so crushed and lacerated that the surgeons at Flower Hospital fear they will have to resort to amputation to save her life.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 24.—The Speculation Stakes, the feature of the card here this afternoon, was run in a heavy smoke and mist that obscured the horses from the time they went around the paddock turn until they were in sight in the stretch. No one knows just how the horses ran in the backstretch. All that is known of the race is that Arasse was off in front followed by The Squire, and that is how they finished. Monfort, away badly, must have made up ground in the backstretch, for he finished a good third.

Some little confusion was caused at the track after the first race by the effort of a representative from the District-Attorney's office to serve Jack Forst with a subpoena. Forst refused to be served or accept the subpoena, so the Elder man said, "All right, I'll stick with you all day."

Forst, walked away and the District-Attorney's man trailed after him. The result was that the crowd, always easily attracted, tagged on and for half an hour or so there was a moving crowd of a couple hundred here and there on the lawn.

Court Lady, the ex-Madden filly, won the opening scramble, a selling event for two-year-olds. She won practically all the way, and at the end was a length in front of Obdurate, another Madden bred filly. Taboo broke badly as usual, but was closing strongly at the end to get the show money.

Accident in Steeplechase.

Jimmy Lane, Stallard and Pirat finished lengths apart as named in the steeplechase. Jimmy Lane ran in the colors of Hitchcock for the season, the Tompkins colors weren't at the track. Jimmy Lane ran a good race, but he fell all the way and was killed on the flat. Ramrod, the only other starter, unhappily killed in the backstretch, was the only one to finish. Coming around to the stretch he ran out of the course into the three feet deep ditch and then galloped after the steeplechase course. In these tight quarters he coasted into two jumps and then galloped over the top of the jump and fell. Jimmy Lane was killed by the fall. He was carried to the hospital and died.

Delirium Wins Third Race.

Delirium won the three-year-old handicap, third on the card, in easy fashion. After following the pace of Besom he was led past the stand at the start and was still in front at the finish. Gowan was second, then Dorante. Almost anything could have happened in the backstretch for all the spectators knew.

SENATOR ALLDS RENOMINATED

NORWICH, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The Republican Senatorial convention for the new Thirty-seventh District, comprising the Counties of Chenango, Madison and Otsego, was held here to-day, and Jotham P. Aldis, of Chenango, unanimously nominated to that office. Senator Aldis has represented the old Twenty-seventh Senate District, Chenango, Delaware and Sullivan Counties, in the State Senate for the past six years.

BARGE CAPTAIN DROWNED.

Fell Off Gangplank After Visiting a Friend.

William Van Blunt, captain of Lehigh Valley Railroad barge No. 30, lying in the Morris Canal basin at Commack, Va., called last night on the captain of the large freighter, the barge, and was drowned. When he had reported to his superiors he was taken to the East Fifty-first street station and locked up.

Complexions Are Cleared and Pimples Disappear Overnight Without Trouble.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The dispensers of possum, a new skin discovery, ask that notice be given that no one is urged to purchase it without first obtaining an experimental package. Those who have tried it will find that the fifty-cent box, on sale at Hegeman's, Riker's and all drug stores, is sufficient to cure the worst cases of eczema where the surface is affected by no too large. The itching ceases on first application. It will also cure acne, tetters, blotches, scaly scalp, hives, barbers' and every other form of itch, including itching feet.

As to the experimental package of possum it can be had free of charge by mail of the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York. It alone is sufficient to clear the complexion over night and to rid the face of pimples in twenty-four hours.—Adv.

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN.

Sept. 24.—Fred Clarke and his band of pennant aspirants from Pittsburg met the Trolley Dodgers again this afternoon here in the third game of the series and for the last time this year.

Manager Clarke was determined to capture the game as his team is now only thirteen points behind the Giants for the lead in the race.

Vie Willis, who has always proven a great puzzle to the Dodgers, was selected to do the twirling for the Pirates, and with the big fellow in the box it looked like a victory for the visitors. Bell was Donovan's selection for the firing line.

As this was Ladies' Day, about 500 of the air sex turned out and they rooted hard for Donovan's men.

First Inning.

Thomas smashed a hot grounder to McMillan and was retired at first. After knocking out many fouls, Clarke finally placed the ball to left for a bag. Leach tagged a scorching bouncer to Sheehan, who threw to McMillan, forcing Clarke, and then McMillan's lightning throw to Jordan. Leach was doubled up. NO RUNS.

Catterson led four bad ones go by and went to first. He was forced at second by Lumley. Leach shooting the ball to Abby, Hummel banged out a long fly which Clarke nailed easily. Jordan was out. NO RUNS.
